Purdy's Orders Are Due Next Week

Just a friendly reminder that the Purdys Easter orders are due next Wednesday, March 15th, before the students leave for Spring Break. If you wish to order some chocolates, you can do so by completing the order form included in the catalogue sent home or online at www.purdysgpp.com. (Group 33580). All money raised through this campaign will help pay for the Grade 6/7 year end trips. Merci! Monique Grimmer (Fundraising Coordinator)

Book Club

Ecole Quarterway Parents/Guardians: Thursday March 16th @ 6.30pm is our next Book Club date to discuss Mindset: The New Psychology of Success by Carol S. Dweck. This month we will be focusing on Chapter 6 – Relationships section (bullying & friendship). Please join us (in the library) for an hour discussion on fixed and growth mindset. Email our Counsellor, Pattie, at patricia.metheral@sd68.bc.ca for more information.

Talent Show!

All grade 1 to 7 students were invited to participate in a Talent Show on Thursday, March 16th. There will be two different showings, 10 to 11 am and 12:30 to 1:25 pm. There are no prizes. The event aims to be a lighthearted celebration of the diverse talents our students have. Parents are welcome to attend. If you have any questions, please email me at elorenz@sd68.bc.ca

PAC Update

Please visit www.quarterway.ca to print and complete an important survey about the new reporting procedures. Thanks to our Canadian Parents for French branch for $4900 in grants for the French Circus Workshops and the Patati Patata French-language Speech Contest at the Port Theatre. Come to their next meeting Monday at 1:37pm in the counsellor's room at Ecole Quarterway, they need your support to continue. Subway lunch this Friday. Thanks so much to all our great lunch program volunteers!
